9. Terms and Conditions Statement:

I understand that my participation in the study abroad program is wholly voluntary and my acceptance into the program is based on the determination of the Study Abroad Selection Committee, in its sole discretion.

I understand I will be notified of my acceptance by an official letter from the Study Abroad Selection Committee that will be sent to the applicable address I have registered with DeVry University.

I understand that, upon acceptance, I will be required to sign an Agreement and Wavier of Liability and Release for Study Abroad Program that further describes the terms and conditions of the program.

I understand that DeVry University reserves the right to make changes to the study abroad program itinerary at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and DeVry University shall not be liable for any loss whatsoever to participants by reason of any such cancellation or change.

I understand that the study abroad program includes health and accident insurance in force and effect for the entire duration of my participation in this study abroad program.

I further agree that I shall be subject to the supervision and authority of the faculty in charge and to the standards stipulated by the Code of Conduct. I further acknowledge that the supervising faculty has sole authority to make decisions regarding the continued participation of any individual in the program whose conduct may necessitate disciplinary action. I further acknowledge the supervising faculty to obtain and provide medical treatment and/or services that I may require during this study abroad program.

I give the Study Abroad Selection Committee permission to order and release my student records and transcript to persons directly involved with the acceptance and processing of my application.
